Welcome to Arundel Gallery Trail 2023

This year, our 34th, sees the Trail reinvigorated with a big increase in artist numbers as well as a smattering of new venues.

Also, the popular Secret Artist Auction will again be showing at the Victoria Institute. See page 25.

The Trail is easy to navigate, largely taking place in central Arundel, but please take time to visit the three out of town venues at Walberton and Ford as well as those on the outskirts of the town - see the following pages.

The Trail's ethos has always been one of inclusivity, so you will find professional artists alongside those who create part time, but all of whom are happy to share their artistic experience.

Much of the art on show is available to purchase, but whether you are seeking something for your home or are an appreciative art lover, there is much to see and be inspired by.

We very much hope you enjoy your visit and look forward to meeting you...

Andy, Josse and Mark

Over the bridge (but not far away)

Over the bridge and just a few minutes walk from the town centre lies a cornucopia of creativity, not to be overlooked. Over 20 artists are waiting to greet you...

Check their entries in the main listings and find their location in the map at the back of this guide.

Veni Smith is back with her delightful watercolours, and just beyond you'll find Annice Rowswell's colourful quilts with Suzanne Gillard's charming felted work. Venues 37 & 38.

Arundel Lido is host not only to the painters of Arundel Art Society, but also to Helen Button's friendly ceramic creatures, Tracey Lodge's mosaics and mixed media work, together with the lacquered lamps and furniture of Christian Wallis. Venue 36.

Head back a little to Queens Lane to see the wonders that Peter Neuner is offering this year, while next door Sarah Sykes is back with a new collection of her highly decorative ceramics. Joining her are Rebecca Snelling with her bespoke hand knits and photographer Clive Mina who invites you to make a portrait on Fuji Instant film using a 5x4 camera. Venues 39 & 40.

From Queens Lane, wander a little further and find The Old Granary in Fitzalan Road where you'll discover a cache of hidden treasures in the form of seven artists and makers under one roof.

Steve Drake is a passionate watercolourist and returns for a second year. Artist blacksmith Alex Smith is also back with his graceful steel sculptures, as are photographers Lucy Harvey and Mike La-Traille.

New to the venue are bespoke illustrated mapmaker Lucie Conoley, ceramicist Dorota Lawrie, and nature inspired artist Helen Ockwell. Venue 41. BN18 9JZ.

Top of the Town

Up the hill at the top of the town there are more treasures to be unearthed. In the Cathedral are landscape painters Julie Burnett-Kirk and Susie Olford who come together with first timers Sussex Scribes whose practice lies in the art of calligraphy and lettering. Venue 17.

A little further down the road are three venues bustling with interest; St Nicholas Church is home to Sussex Sculptors, while Priory Playhouse hosts painter and paper cutout artist Antony Muzzall and jeweller Jane Pinder. Nearby you can find Geoffrey Stinton's characterful wire birds in the company of the land art of Mark Ford, who has also produced something special for the Priory wall at the top of the High Street. Venues 26, 27 & 28.

Out of Town (Walberton and Ford)

We again welcome a handful of 'out of town' venues and since they are all congregated just a couple of miles to the west and south-west, we very much hope you'll take a short trip to visit them.

Check their entries in the main listings and find their location in the map at the back of this guide.

Two at Walberton

Cat and Kiwi Studios are ready to welcome you to the array of artists and makers exhibiting this year. On offer are ceramics, wire and willow sculpture, stained glass, jewellery, prints and upholstery. Venue 15.

20 minutes by bike/10 minutes by car from Arundel BN18 0AS

Nearby neighbours Forge Gallery are similarly showing a cache of creativity with paintings, ceramics, jewellery and glassware all on display. Venue 16.

20 minutes by bike/10 minutes by car from Arundel BN18 0PQ

Ford

This year Zimmer Stewart Gallery are popping up at two different venues, the first is at The Mill Studio in Ford where they are showing the richly imaginative prints of Tom Hammick. Venue 14. 45 minute walk/12 minutes by bike/6 minutes by car from Arundel BN18 0EF

Their second venue is closer to the town, just a short walk along Ford Road at The Crypt, showing much loved Arundel associate, sculptor Giles Penny. As well as his eternally elusive figures, the gallery will also be exhibiting a number of his prints. Venue 13. 10 minute walk from Arundel Town Centre BN18 9EA

Please be respectful when visiting venues, remembering that you are entering artists' personal spaces, keep to the areas you are directed to and do not enter other rooms.

Please also supervise children, ask permission to take photographs of work and for your dog to enter. Thank you.

★ Secret Artist Auction! ★

From Sat 19 August, 44 artworks on 30 x 30cm panels by anonymous Trail artists will be exhibited at the Victoria Institute in Tarrant Street. Artworks are only signed on the back - can you guess the identity of the artist who painted your favourite?

Come in to view the exhibition and place your silent bid or see the collection at www.arundelgallerytrail.co.uk and place your online bid from Mon 14 August. Starting bid £60.

We will contact you immediately if you are outbid. This gives you the chance to increase your bid! The auction closes on Mon 28 August at 9pm.

At the end of the auction we'll be back in touch to confirm that you hold the highest bid and to arrange payment. You can then collect your artwork and discover who your Secret Artist is. We can organise shipping if necessary.

Your personal details will not be shared.

Bid proceeds are divided equally between the Secret Artists and Arundel Gallery Trail.

Good luck and happy bidding!

Arundel Festival of the Arts

Welcome to Arundel Festival of the Arts 2023!

From Friday 18 to Monday 28 August, Arundel will once again come alive with a vibrant and varied 10 day programme of uplifting entertainment, with over 100 events for all ages to enjoy!

Festival favourites are back! From folk music, art and theatre trails to choirs and al fresco dining; from street markets and the Sporting Bears performance cars, to Tuk Tuk rides and family friendly fun. There is a mix of ticketed concerts and performances, street entertainment and community events.

This year's Festival line-up includes local talent and carefully chosen national performers, so whether you love Shakespeare or slapstick comedy, steel pans or orchestras, acoustic melodies or lift-the-roof rock, the Festival has music and entertainment to get you singing, dancing and smiling!

Where can you enjoy Arundel Festival of the Arts events?

During the Festival, the whole town becomes a stage and everyone's invited! From performances in tiny cottages and Arundel Castle, to concerts in Arundel's imposing Cathedral and St Nicholas Church, from the outdoor Music Festival in Brooks Fields to ABBAMAGIC on the High Street, this year's venues (inside and outside) are as varied as the Festival's eclectic mix of music from all genres, arts, dance, theatre, comedy, street entertainment and community events.

What's new for 2023?

Be amongst the first to meet our new guest 'Minerva' - the hero owl and decorative art sculpture in Chestnut Tree House's art trail heading to Arundel in Summer 2024 as part of 'The Big Hoot Project.' Minerva will be making her debut appearance in Arundel at the opening ceremony on Fri 18th.

Arundel's Music Festival on Fri 18th and Sat 19th sees the return of Murdoch's Crazy Eyes as well as a first appearance by the Runaway Killers and on Sat 19th, Petworth Festival Piano Event, supported by Arundel Festival of the Arts, returns to Arundel Farmers' Market. Whether you've never played the piano or you would like to play your favourite masterpiece or jazz standard, put your best fingers forward and give Petworth Festival's piano a try. You never know what prizes you might win!

Port of Arundel Day on Sun 20th, will bring the local community together featuring Sussex based sea shanty bands, history trails, competitions and more with live broadcasts from V2 Radio in Jubilee Gardens.

During the Festival, look out for our fantastic Team Arundel volunteers, who are always happy to help, so you can enjoy a fun and safe experience. We will also have a stall at the monthly Farmers' Markets to answer any queries, sell tickets and promote your event flyers.

Follow Arundel Festival of the Arts on Facebook and Instagram; @arundelfestival and share your Festival photos to win a prize in our competition.

Find out more by visiting our website for all the latest information, to buy tickets and to sign up to our Festival newsletter.
