Welcome to Arundel Gallery Trail 2022

The Trail has been running for 33 years and is as vibrant and varied as it always has been. Creativity continues to thrive within our community, bringing a feeling of uplift that we all so vitally need right now.

So come and while away a pleasant afternoon wandering around the 34 venues and meet some of our 90+ artists and makers. There is the opportunity to chat with them about their practice and maybe even discover something that you just have to take home with you!

There is a sense of joy to be had from experiencing the energy of creatives who pluck an idea from the ether and turn it into something thought provoking or beautiful; something that moves us or that resonates with our own spirit, and which remains truly important for our well-being.

We look forward to seeing you...

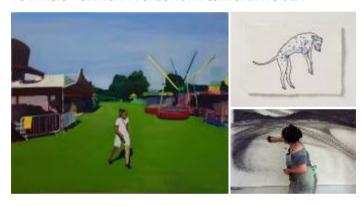

Out of Town

Historically, the Trail has always been, and remains, an easy event to navigate, largely based around a few streets in the centre of town, but this year we have extended our reach to include a handful of venues a little further afield which we very much hope you will take the time to visit.

Check their entries in the main listings and find their location in the map at the back of this guide.

The Zimmer Stewart Gallery, now to be found online, have a pop-up at The Crypt, just a short walk down Ford Road and are showing the work of Holly Frean, Tom Farthing and Kate Boucher. Venue No.11

10 minute walk from Arundel town centre, BN18 9EA

The Mill Studio at Ford is home to Piers Ottey who will once again be showing his latest studies inspired by his travels, both abroad and in this country. Venue No.12

50 minute walk/12 minutes by bike/6 minutes by car from Arundel. BN18 0EF

Two at Walberton

The Forge Gallery at Walberton are exhibiting a diverse group of 11 artists and makers whose practices include illustration, jewellery, glassware, ceramics and painting. Venue No.14 20 minutes by bike/10 minutes by car from Arundel. BN19 0PQ

Cat and Kiwi Studio, also at Walberton, is run by jeweller Katherine Lawrie who hosts an eclectic mix of creatives that include glassware, stained glass, ceramics, paper cuts, painting, prints and furniture upholstery. Venue No.13
20 minutes by bike/10 minutes by car from Arundel. BN18 0AS

Over the bridge (but not so far away)

Over the bridge and barely a few minutes walk from the town centre lies a wealth of creativity, not to be overlooked.

11 artists are waiting to greet you...

Check their entries in the main listings and find their location in the map at the back of this guide.

Discover Veni Smith's expressive watercolours of characterful café society and a little further down the road you will find two textile artists; Annice Rowswell's vibrant quilts and Suzanne Gillard's textural felt making.

Left, venue 30. Centre and right, venue 31

Backtrack a little to Queens Lane to see Peter Neuner's quirky structures revealing his unique take on life, while next door are three more artists; Sarah Sykes's joyful ceramics, Georgia Flowers's well observed wildlife lino cuts and drawings, and the spontaneously created jewellery of Iris Godfrey.

Clockwise from left, venues 33,33,32 and 33

Now that you've got this far, it's only a stone's throw down Fitzalan Road, to where four artists are in residence under one roof, see opposite...

Over the bridge (continued)

In the Old Granary, partners Mike La-Traille and Lucy Harvey show and share a love of photography, and the organic metalwork forms of Alex Smith twist skywards. The group are completed by the delicate watercolours of Steve Drake. Venue No.34 BN18 9JZ

Top of the Town

Please also find time for several venues at the top of the town on London Road. Not to be missed are two art groups; Sussex Sculptors can be found at St Nicholas' Church, while Arundel Art Society are in residence at the Cathedral Centre with Christian Wallis's shapely lacquered lamp bases also on show.

There is a collection of artists in the Cathedral too; landscape painters Susie Olford and Julie Burnette-Kirk show alongside Dot Marchlewicz's ceramics, while Isabelle Pietersz's landscapes and portraits are not far away at Venue 22.

Clockwise from top left, venues 23,15,15,16,16, 22,16,and 16

Renée Bodimeade 1928-2022

Born in Worthing, Renée moved to Arundel in 1957, at first living and working at the Swan Inn before settling with John Bodimeade in King Street.

Later moving to Maltravers Street, Renée was to teach art at Lavant House, whilst becoming more and more involved in the Arundel arts scene, working with Drip Action Theatre and later co-founding the Arundel Gallery Trail.

Renée was mother to Nick, Miles and Matt.

* Secret Artist Auction! *

From Sat 20th August, 50+ artworks on 30 x 30cm panels by anonymous Trail artists will be exhibited at the Victoria Institute in Tarrant Street. Artworks are only signed on the back - can you guess the identity of the artist who painted your favourite?

Come in to view the exhibition and place your silent bid or see the collection at www.arundelgallerytrail.co.uk and place your online bid from Sat 13th August. Starting bid £50.

We will contact you immediately if you are outbid. This gives you the chance to increase your bid! The auction closes on Mon 29th August at 9pm.

At the end of the auction we'll be back in touch to confirm that you hold the highest bid and to arrange payment. You can then collect your artwork and discover who your Secret Artist is. We can organise shipping if necessary.

Your personal details will not be shared.

Bid proceeds are divided equally between the Secret Artists and Arundel Gallery Trail.

Good luck and happy bidding!

Welcome to the Arundel Festival of the Arts 2022!

FROM Friday 19th to Monday 29th August, Arundel will buzz with a 10-day programme of uplifting entertainment for all ages. Festival favourites are back! From dragon boats and the duck race to choirs and café culture; from a street market and the Sporting Bears performance cars to Fuller's horse rides and free family-friendly fun. There is a mix of ticketed concerts and performances, street entertainment, and community events.

The hugely varied Festival line-up includes local talent and carefully chosen national performers, from experienced artists to young talent. So whether you love Shakespeare or slapstick comedy, steel bands or orchestras, acoustic melodies or lift-the-roof rock, Arundel Festival 2022 has music and entertainment to get you singing, dancing – and smiling!

What's new for 2022?

Abba Magic will rock the cobbles - on the High Street for the first time. Also new for 2022, Arundel Festival events will be staged in Canada Road park and at the Arundel Baptist Church. The Pollinators Garden will join Jubilee Gardens to hum with acoustic music and singers. The weekend-long music festival in Brooks Field, behind Mill Road car park, is back — and bigger! For the full event programme and to buy tickets, please visit www.arundelfestival.co.uk.

Where can you enjoy Arundel Festival of the Arts events?

During Arundel's annual Festival of the Arts, the whole town becomes a stage – and everyone's invited! From performances in tiny cottages to a children's concert in Arundel's imposing cathedral, from the outdoor music festival to Abba Magic on the High Street, this year's venues (inside and outdoor) are as varied as the Festival's eclectic mix of the arts, music, dance, theatre and dance.

How can you find out more?

For the latest information and to buy tickets, please follow the Arundel Festival of the Arts on Facebook or Instagram: @arundelfestival or visit www.arundelfestival.co.uk. During the Festival, look out for our fantastic Team Arundel volunteers, who are always happy to help so you can enjoy a fun and safe experience.

Please get involved!

Share your Festival photos with the Festival social media community using the hashtag #arundelfestival2022 and join in the fun with our regular picture caption competitions on Facebook and Instagram: @arundelfestival.
